

10th September 2008.

Dear Taylor,

Hi! First, I was amazed of having such a lovely penpal as you. You can't imagine how happy I am. Well, let me tell you about myself:-

My name is Upendo Samuel. Upendo is a Swahili word. It means "LOVEMESS". My birthday is on 9th December, Wow! I'm glad that we were born in the same year. I'm short, My complexion is light brown, I've short black hairs. My hobbies are singing, dancing, playing and most of all chatting with the ones I love. My favourite colours are Pink, red and Orange. I live in Tanzania, In a city known as Arusha. Well, on my side, I don't eat alot. I always eat a little food. My favourite dishes are chicken, chips and Sausages. My favourite bites are cakes, cookies, egg chops and meat chops. My favourite fruits are apples, mangoes, Strawberries and Oranges. My ambition is to become a professional Doctor.

I live a simple life with my parents, brother and sisters. We are four children in our family. I have one brother and two sisters. My brother is the eldest, then my sisters. After them comes the last born!! (and that's me!). I think this is enough about my family.

Here in TZ, we have alot of tribes. Some of them are Maasai, Pare, Chaga, Haya, Hehe etc. But I'm a Pare.

Do you want me to talk about my school? Well, my school's name is St. Theresa of the Child Jesus Secondary School. Does it sound nice? Well, it's a boarding school. I like it very much. Because it's a very nice school. Also we are treated well here, we eat well. It has a very good environment with fresh air. Also the teacher loves and teaches us very nice. So, I really enjoy being here. Well, this is also my first year in high school. But I really enjoy it.

You know what? The way I make an imagination, I can imagine the way you look like. But I want to know you better. So, can you please send me your snaps, coz I'm really excited to know how you look like. (I mean your lovely face). Also can you please send me your email address, please!!!! coz I want to contact with you more.

You can contact with me through our school's address or you can also use my email address which is:-

Lpendo Samuel@yahoo.com.

Well, I think we will go on communicating to each other.

So I would like to end here for today. Bye! Bye!

Your Sincerely,
Lpendo Samuel.
