Dear Lightness Felshism,

Hello! I'm extremely happy that you are my pen pal :)

You seem like you are a very cool person. I would really enjoy meeting you. How's school going? 10th grade for me has been a pain! TONS of work and having to juggle my personal life has been hard. But I am making through. I do not have a pet, but I plan on getting a little dog soon. I'm going to name him "Señor" which in spanish means "Mr." I don't know why I'm so attracted to that name. It is just catchy to me.

My birthday is in 10 days! I'm super excited. Turning 16 is a big deal to me. My major plan for the big day is just to hang out with my friends and catch a movie and chill.

My email address is taylorkissan@hotmail.com. We can exchange pictures on there.

Nice talking to you,

Taylor Norris
