Dear Lpendo Samuel,

Hello! I'm also glad that you are my pen-pal. I always wanted one. ☺

I'm am surprised that you like your boarding school so much. I was considering going to one but I didn't want to live my friends and family just yet. That can wait until I go to college. But you are a very strong individual for being able to stay away from your family.

My birthday is in 10 days! I'm super excited. Turning 16, is a big deal to me. My major plan for the big day is just to hang out with my friends catch a movie and chill.

My email address is taylorluisjane@hotmail.com, we can exchange pictures on there.

Nice talking to you again,
Taylor Norris
