Hello Baby Flora,

Poa! I was glad to receive your letter. It was so pretty! I'm glad you enjoy your boarding school. My e-mail is ebonywalton@vistamar-school.org. You'd have to tell me your e-mail address before e-mailing so your e-mail won't be marked as SPAM. You have access to computers? That's cool! I have an e-mail: AIM. If you have an AIM or MSN you could give me ur screenname. Those are way easier than e-mailing.

I don't exactly have a favorite singer but I'm currently listening to Beyonce, Suicidal Tendencies, Paramore, Katy Perry, Kelis, Christina Aguilera, Ludo, Musiq, Prince etc.

My favorite color.. well in general its yellow but I usually have a color of my mood. Last year it was purple but ever since winter break I've been attracted to blue. I even painted my nails blue. Who knows how long I'll like blue but yellow is my true love for ever!!

How are you? Hope everything is going well.

Its a new year I can already tell its going to be extra busy. Tommorrow I'm suppose to go to a knit-in for community service then the movies with some friends but today I have alot of homework to complete. Then on Tuesday Barack Obama will be titled U.S. President. So everyone will be celebrating that. Then I'll have to go to Readers are Leaders for Community Service.

I apologize all I've talking about is myself. Tell me more about yourself & life. I have to go complete my homework and a script I'm knitting. I wish you the best. Sorry for any misspelling or errors in my letter. I haven't write a letter in pen in a LONG time! I'll probably type next time.

Your new friend,
Obony Walton
